

FINANCIAL SERVICES GUIDE

This FSG, version 8.1, was prepared on 21st June 2021

This Financial Services Guide describes our financial planning and advisory services to assist you to decide whether to use our services. It describes how we are remunerated, our professional indemnity insurance and how we handle any complaints you may have.

We may give you other documents when providing our services. These may include:

- Statements of Advice - If we provide you with advice about your personal circumstances, we will set out our advice in a Statement of Advice (or in some cases, a shorter document called a Record of Advice). This will also tell you how we will be remunerated for the advice we give you. When we provide further advice to you, we may not give you a Statement of Advice, however we will record the advice and you can ask us for a copy of the advice by calling us.
- Product Disclosure Statements - If we recommend that you acquire a financial product, we will also provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement containing information about the product's features and risks.

Not Independent

We and or our AFS licensee are not independent, impartial, or unbiased within the meaning of the Corporations Act because we may receive life risk and other commissions, or other gifts or benefits.

OUR SERVICES

Chesterfields Financial Services Pty Ltd is different to many financial planning practises as its wholly owned subsidiary, Chesterfields Wealth Pty Ltd, holds its own Australian Financial Services (AFS) License, No. 482701, our Licensee.

Our high-quality financial planning and advisory services can assist you to:

- Identify your financial and investment objectives, taking into account your current financial position and personal circumstances;
- Help you to develop financial goals and investment strategies;
- Advise you how to implement your investment strategies; and
- Recommend and arrange financial products that are suitable for your needs.

We provide advice in the following areas:

- Cash Management – budgeting, debt management
- Superannuation – consolidating or optimising superannuation, finding lost superannuation
- Life Insurance – personal or business succession
- Investment – full financial plan, one off investment, gearing
- Retirement – transition to retirement, social security advice, aged care planning
- Retirement planning – income and investments
- Self-Managed Super Fund – advice, establishment
- Estate Planning

The financial products we can arrange for you include:

- Deposit and payment products
- Securities
- Managed investment schemes
- Superannuation, including SMSFs
- Investor directed portfolio services
- Government debentures, stocks and bonds
- Retirement savings accounts
- Life risk and investment products
- Margin lending

We research a broad range of products and select those that are worthy of recommendation to our clients. We also review the performance of those products periodically to ensure they remain competitive and will meet your ongoing needs.

We act for you when giving advice and arranging financial products.

HOW CAN YOU DEAL WITH US?

You can deal with us in person, by phone or email. It is important that you provide us with complete and accurate information about your circumstances and you take the time to check any assumptions we make and the basis for our advice. If you don't our advice may not be appropriate for your needs.

Naturally, your circumstances may change over time. When this happens, our initial advice and recommendations may no longer be appropriate for you. We can periodically review your financial position, personal circumstances, financial goals and investment strategies to decide whether those strategies and goals and the financial products you hold are appropriate. Or, you can contact us for a review when your circumstances change.

HOW WE ARE PAID

Financial planning and investment services	We charge for our financial planning and investment services on the basis of the time that we spend looking after your needs. HOW WE PROTECT YOUR PRIVACY?

We are committed to protecting your privacy. We use the information you provide us to advise you on your financial circumstances, goals and strategies. We provide your information to the product issuers and service providers (and their representatives) with whom you choose to deal with and our related entities. When we recommend a financial product or service, we will provide their PDS or disclosure document to you which will outline their privacy policy.

We do not trade, rent or sell your information. However, we may use the Internet 'cloud' and external data storage providers or other companies to backup and ad-hoc store our electronic data. Therefore, your information may be disclosed to recipients in overseas countries. We, or our licensee, will not be accountable for any recipient's breach of Australian privacy laws and you will not be able to seek redress under those laws.

If you don't provide us with full information, we can't properly advise or assist you with your financial service's needs. If you request us to provide you with services or monitor your accounts via the internet while you are in the European Union (EU) you will need to provide us with written consent to do so, as you may have different rights while in the EU. For more information about how we comply with the requirements of the Privacy Act and Australian Privacy Principles, to access the information we hold about you, how to have it corrected and how to complain if you think we have breached the privacy law, ask us for a copy of our Privacy Policy by contacting us, via the details listed above.

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING AND COUNTER TERRORISM

As a financial service provider, we and our AFS license have an obligation under the Anti-Money Laundering and Counter Terrorism Finance Act 2006 (Cth) to verify your identity and the source of any funds. This means that we will ask you to present identification documents to meet assessment requirements such as your passport or driver's license and other documents, if applicable. We will also retain copies of this information. In connection with providing our services to you, we may disclose the information you have provided to our AFS licensee, other professionals such as financial institutions, insurance providers, superannuation trustees, product issuers and our service providers.
